Joan Begay Notah is the Senior Procurement Specialist for the National Center American Indian Procurement Technical Assistance Center (PTAC). The PTAC is funded through a cooperative agreement from the Department of Defense (DOD) administered by the Defense Logistics Agency (DLA). The PTAC provides federal contracting technical assistance to Native American-owned firms and tribal enterprises. Previously, Joan served as the Interim Program Manager for the PTAC program. Prior to the PTAC, she was the Project Director for the AZ Native American Business Enterprise Center funded by the U.S. Department of Commerce and the Minority Business Development Agency (MBDA). She has over 22 years of experience in business development, grants management and federal procurement. Her NABEC program was recognized as MBDA's highest performing program, highest number of awarded contracts and jobs.

She graduated magna cum laude from Arizona State University with a Bachelor of Science degree in Management and graduated with highest distinction with a Master of Business Administration (MBA) from Grand Canyon University. She is a board member of the Dineh Chamber of Commerce. She has served on the board of directors for the American Indian Chamber of Commerce of Arizona, the Arizona State University Native American Alumni Board, and has served on the Indian Parent Committee for the Chandler Unified School District. Joan is a Certified Supplier Diversity Professional (CSDP) by the Alliance for Supplier Diversity Professionals (ASDP).
